

OUR CHAMPIONS ROCK

As a member of the prestigious Panel of Champions, we're counting on you to spread the word. Many people are not aware of the critical need for and incredible benefits for children participating in quality afterschool programs.

Here are the facts...

- Almost 750,000 (25%) of Florida's school children take care of themselves afterschool. These children spend an average of 8 hours per week unsupervised afterschool.
- The peak time for juvenile crime – and for juveniles being victims of crime is between 3 and 4 PM right after the school day ends.
- 86% of Police Chiefs nationally agree that "expanding afterschool programs and child care will greatly reduce youth crime and violence." They also agree that afterschool and child care programs are the most effective strategy for reducing juvenile crime.
- Multiple studies show that children in quality afterschool have better school attendance rates, promotion rates, and FCAT test scores. Further, they have fewer serious disciplinary offenses, lower dropout rates and lower rates of in and out of school suspensions than their peers who do not participate in afterschool programs.
- Recent research affirms that quality afterschool programs helps high risk children retain the gains realized in pre-kindergarten programs such as school readiness, Head Start and Voluntary Pre-K.
